Moving Beyond Conflict and Blame: Why Canadians Should Support Six Nations Land Rights

An information session and panel discussion on the background to the Douglas Creek Estates reclamation and the possibilities for peace, justice and reconciliation between Canada and Six Nations.

This event is being put on in the spirit of peace and togetherness and is designed as a safe environment for discussion and exchange of ideas about the possible ways that the issue of Six Nations land claims can be peacefully and justly resolved.

All open-minded people interested in genuine dialogue are welcome. The meeting agenda will consist of a presentation from all panel members and an open and respectful discussion and dialogue between all people present.
